

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., June 29, 1877.—10:30 a. m. For New England and the Middle Atlantic States, stationary or lower pressure, southerly winds, warmer, partly cloudy weather and occasional showers.

EPISCOPAL HIGH SCHOOL.—The first celebration of the Episcopal High School took place on the 27th. Among the clergy in attendance were Rt. Rev. Drs. Penney, Peacock and White, and Rev. W. E. Watkins, E. A. Dalrymple, and G. H. Grammer, of Fairfax County, Va.; second prize to F. Foster Statterthwaite, of North Carolina; first prize to Joseph Preston Carson, of Lynchburg, Va. For Scholarship—White Prize, to Royal James Miller, of Georgia; Robert Lee Randolph, of Baltimore, Md.; and William Steuber, of West Va.; John prize, to Morgan Hawley Beach, of Alexandria, Va.; Benjamin Henry Hayward, of South Carolina; Alexander Shiras Larned, of Baltimore, Md.; James Stewart McGee, of Louisiana; and Frederick James Winston, of New York; Meade prize, to James Murray Larned, of Maryland.

The annual address was delivered by Joseph Packard, Jr., of Maryland. After the address the prizes were distributed as follows: For Declaration—Fourth prize to John Points Nelson, of Shanghai, China; third prize, to Robert Walter Moore, of Fairfax County, Va.; second prize to F. Foster Statterthwaite, of North Carolina; first prize, to Joseph Preston Carson, of Lynchburg, Va. For Scholarship—White Prize, to Royal James Miller, of Georgia; Robert Lee Randolph, of Baltimore, Md.; and William Steuber, of West Va.; John prize, to Morgan Hawley Beach, of Alexandria, Va.; Benjamin Henry Hayward, of South Carolina; Alexander Shiras Larned, of Baltimore, Md.; James Stewart McGee, of Louisiana; and Frederick James Winston, of New York; Meade prize, to James Murray Larned, of Maryland.

Barclay prize medal, for Excellence in Mathematics, to J. Stewart McGee, of Louisiana. Blackford prize medal, for Excellence in English Composition, to Pembroke Lee Thom, of Baltimore. Dalrymple Prize medal, for Excellence in Latin and Greek, to Cornelius Baldwin Walker, of Fairfax County, Va.

The following students were announced as having been distinguished in every Examination of the session: Morgan H. Beach, of Alexandria, Va.; Alexander S. Larned, of Baltimore, Md.; Murray Larned, of Maryland; M. C. Cabell, of Maryland; J. Stewart McGee, of Louisiana; Royal J. Miller, of Georgia; William S. Spencer, of West Virginia; S. Halsted Watkins, of Baltimore, Md. The exercises were then closed.

DEATH OF REV. DR. MITCHELL.—Jacob Dache Mitchell, D. D., departed this life at 11 o'clock last night, at his residence on Royal, between Duke and Fairfax streets, in the 71st year of his age. Dr. Mitchell was born in Philadelphia, but had resided in Virginia since his early manhood, where he was well known as an able and zealous minister of the Presbyterian Church. His first charge was the church at Liberty, Bedford county, and he was afterwards, for many years, the pastor of the church in Lynchburg. He was a member of one of the oldest and most respectable families in his native city, being a brother of Professor Thomas D. Mitchell, of the Medical University, and of the late Joseph Mitchell, for many years the President of the Mechanics' Bank of Philadelphia. He was thoroughly educated, being a graduate of the college at Princeton, and was a scholar of varied attainments beyond the field of his professional learning. No minister in the Synod of Virginia ranked higher in the sphere of theology. Dr. Mitchell was a leading member of various orders, including the Masons and Sons of Temperance, and was in all things zealous in every good word and work. The disease of which Dr. M. died was paralysis, attended with some symptoms of softening of the brain at the latest stages, which partially obscured his intellect for a few days, but he retained the use of his faculties to the end, and passed away, with comparatively little suffering, after a confinement of about two months. There will be a short religious service held at the residence at 7 o'clock a. m. to-morrow, previous to the removal of the remains to Lynchburg for burial.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—A meeting of the County Board of Supervisors was held at the old Courthouse in this city yesterday.

Wm. H. Robinson having been appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of F. G. Schmitt, of Arlington District, appeared and was sworn in. Edmund Burke was instructed to move upon the bond of Charles W. Payne, Collector of Taxes for Washington District, to recover $25.41 taxes collected and unaccounted for, also upon the bond of Horatio Bell, Collector of Taxes for Arlington District to recover $21.58 taxes collected and unaccounted for. Mr. Burke was also instructed to institute such legal proceedings as in his judgment he may deem proper, on behalf of the Board of Supervisors, for the recovery and restoration to the Clerk's office of this county, the records and other books which were recently removed to the Clerk's office of Alexandria city.

The report of the Superintendent of the Poor was received and approved with the exception of a charge of $6 for the burial of Wm. Contee, and the Sheriff was ordered to ascertain and report what property said Contee owned at the time of his death. H. Frazier was allowed $8 per month for the support of John Humphreys, a pauper. The county levy was laid at 72 cents on the $100, and the District school levy for Jefferson $20 on the $100, Arlington 34 cents on the $100, and Washington 45 on the $100. The sum of $2,500 was ordered to be set apart by the County Treasurer as a contingent fund. The Board adjourned till the first Monday in December.

DEATHS.—Mr. George Bossart, sr., whose illness was mentioned yesterday, died last night at his residence on Queen street. He was about fifty-six years old and a native of Germany, but had resided in this city for many years past. His death resulted from cholera morbus, with which he was attacked on Tuesday morning. Mr. Bossart was a member of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons, Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, and the German Benevolent Society, all of which will attend his funeral on Sunday next. Mr. Samuel Sanderson, a former citizen of this place, and at one time Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, died in Washington yesterday. He was well known to many of our older citizens.

POLICE ITEMS.—John Laws, a notorious colored rough of David's Row, beat and threatened to draw Sophonia Ferguson, also colored, yesterday, and was chased by Officer Joseph Horsemann, but succeeded in making his escape. Last night, however, the officer captured him, and he was fined by the Mayor. James Simms, being drunk and disorderly, was sent to the work house for 30 days. Mike Moroney, Jr. disorderly conduct at the same house, was fined and discharged. A colored boy, for throwing stones in the streets, was appropriately punished.

LIBRARY EXCURSION.—The excursion on the steamer City of Alexandria, for the benefit of the Alexandria Library, will take place to-night. The weather bids fair to be delightful, and a most agreeable trip is promised to all who take part in the excursion.

Beautiful Spring Dress Gowns, Summer Silks, Bontons, Laces, Grenadines, beautiful Calico 4 1/2, Black Silks, Black Cashmeres, Black Alpaca, new Parasols, Cassimeres, f. Boys' wear, Carter, 707 Market Space, Washington, is selling the cheapest dry goods.

CHICAGO CATTLE MARKET. June 28.—Hogs active and firm; common 4 1/2 to 5 1/2; light 4 1/2 to 5 1/2; packing 4 1/2 to 5 1/2; butchers 4 1/2 to 5 1/2; receipts 1837; shipments 829.

THE HARVEST.—From a gentleman in the town of Fauquier county we learn that the wheat harvest there is nearly over, and that the yield is unusually heavy, owing in fact to the frost and heavy rain, but in fact the grass and clover makes a splendid crop, as also the corn and rye crop. It only needs a good price for the crops to put the farmers on their feet again. It seems to be the settled determination of all the farmers in the State to board their grain in anticipation of a rise in price, and to sell only what they are absolutely compelled to. With regard to Loudoun county the Mirror says: "Many of our farmers are through with their wheat harvest, and the most of them will get through this week. The yield promises to be good, and the quality of the grain is excellent."

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During the storm on Tuesday evening last the lightning struck the corn house of Mr. A. M. Clarke, near Clarke's Gap, Loudoun county, severely stunning some of the hands who had taken refuge there from the storm. The parties were John Mullin and his sons Edgar and Collin, also Mr. James Woods and his son William. Isaac Vandevanter's barn was also struck during the same storm.

Local Brevities. Among the visitors in the city to-day was Col. F. W. M. Holliday, of Winchester, one of the prominent candidates for Governor, who was cordially welcomed by his many friends here. In consequence of the severe storm on the evening of the 28th, the concert at the Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, was postponed until Tuesday evening next, July 3d.

A little daughter of Rev. C. D. Walker died in Annapolis, Md., on Monday, and was brought to the Theological Seminary, near this city, for interment. In consequence of the closing exercises of the City School Board, the regular meeting of the City School Board has been postponed until next week.

Mr. Maria Taylor is lying dangerously ill at his residence on Fairfax street, from an affection of the brain. No child can sleep soundly while suffering with Colic or from Teething. Remove the cause by using Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Only 25 cents per bottle.

PORT OF ALEXANDRIA, JUNE 29. Sun rises..... 4 41 Moon rises..... 10 7 Sun sets..... 7 25 High water..... 0 00

ARRIVED. Steamer Lady of the Lake, Norfolk, to F. A. Reed. Steamer J. W. Thompson, Leonardtown, to F. A. Reed. Steamer Mattano, Nomini, to Jos. Brothers & Co.

Schr. Annie Lewis, Georgetown, to Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Co. Schr. Geo. K. Hatch, Washington, to Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Co. Schr. Wm. A. Levington, New York, to American Coal Co. Schr. Armida Hall, Boston, to master.

SATLED. Steamer Lady of the Lake, Norfolk, by F. A. Reed. Steamer Express, Baltimore, by Jos. Brothers & Co.

Schr. Annie Lewis, Boston, by Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Co. Schr. J. Morris Port, Jersey City, by American Coal Co. Schr. E. J. Smith, Boston, by J. P. Agnew & Co. Schr. L. A. Rose, from Georgetown. Schr. Henry Daisey, hence for Allyn's Point, at New London 27th.

MARRIED. June 25th, in Baltimore, by Rev. O. C. Beall, B. A. SHREVE, of Loudoun co., to SALLIE NELSON, of Baltimore. On the 24th instant, at the residence of the bride's father, Upperville, Fauquier co., Va., by Rev. Wm. H. Johnson, Mr. S. G. BOOKER, of St. Louis, Mo., and Miss MARY G. STEPHENSON, of Fauquier.

DIED. "I have but one to die," significantly remarked LUCIOUS HOLMAN SLATTUCK, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a few hours before his death, which occurred at 21 minutes to 8 o'clock this a. m. The deceased was in the 38th year of his age. Those are blessed who have but once to die. His funeral will take place from the residence of his father in law, Mr. John T. Armstrong, No. 112 Cameron st., at 6 o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Friends are respectfully invited to attend.

In this city, June 28th, Mr. GEORGE A. BOSSART, aged 57 years, 2 months and 19 days, died. His funeral will take place on Sunday evening, at 4 o'clock, from the residence of Mr. Robert Collingsworth, corner of Columbus and Oronoco sts.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.—JAMES STAFFORD CO., Trustee, of a tract of land, situated in the County of Fairfax, and in the State of Virginia, and in the County of Stafford, in the State of Virginia, on the Potomac river, being bounded by said river on the east, by Aquia creek and Boy's branch on the west, on the south by the land of S. Lee, and on the north by the land of John Lee, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of July, 1877, at 12 m. of that day, offer for sale by public auction, on the premises, the property conveyed by the deed aforesaid, to wit: CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing by survey 541 acres, and 2 roods, being the same land that was devised by the said Henry C. Lee under the will of the late A. M. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax county, Va., and being a part of a larger tract called "Arkland," together with all the rights of fishery belonging to the said land, records of Stafford county, Virginia, and at the written request of the parties secured thereby, we will on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of